$230 was raised at the Uncle Yu's lunch (as Jennie put in $100 so she won't pay $10/event this year.) $110 was raised to support our charities from the Delancy St. lunch. There was also a $200 donation from the Kaplans so we're starting the year off with $540 for our charities: A Friendly Place and Doctors Without Borders.

Sallie Andersen reported on the SFO's museum with the Flying the Freedom Birds on exhibit and asked that we call 1-650-821-6717 to donate items for their aviation collections. They are also collecting stories from stewardesses. Sally may organize a trip to the SFO Museum.

Lucy Hart and Suzy Proescher are planning a lunch on Thurs., 3/26/20, 11:30 am, on the waterfront in Antioch. Suzy highly recommended Smith's Landing Seafood Grill in the old Humphrey's location on the San Joaquin river. They have a package for groups that is $28 per person. Suzy is very impressed with their chef and thinks the food is top notch. The address is: 1 Marina Plaza, Antioch. RSVP to me, Lucy Hart, at (925) 889-9656 or lucyhart552@gmail.com

Hetta Malone is planning a 3 course luncheon at the DVC Norseman Culinary School, 321 Golf Club Road, Concord, on Thursday, April 16th at 11:30 am. Emilia de Geer wants us to save May 5th for a Tamalie making Cinco de Mayo event. The date for this event is in flux.

Dues are due May 1, 2020. Liv won't cash your $50 check until May 1st so you can send to her before that.

Love

by Kate Cortesi | Directed by Mike Donahue

When Penelope is approached about joining a group of women making harassment allegations against her former boss, she finds herself at an uncomfortable crossroads—the man accused was a former lover and remains a dear friend. As the women’s stories unfold, Penelope questions what happened to her, what she enabled, and her very identity. Love examines what accountability looks like when an abuser of power is one of our favorite men, and poses a radical question: Can we place love at the center of these reckonings?
