

June 2023 OAK WW Newsletter
From Louise Diracles, President

Three big events in two months; don't miss out on the fun.

Linda Rineck is organizing a trip via BART to the Asian Art Museum to see an exhibition called Beyond Bollywood on Sat., June 10th. Senior rate is $27. Members are free. RSVP to Linda AS SOON AS POSSIBLE: lsrineck@aol.com or 925-939-7204. Please let Linda know if you're an Asian Art Museum member. All participants need to be at the Museum by ten am. Optional lunch afterwards at the Café. Check it out on the Asian Art Museum website: <https://asianart.org/>

If taking BART, allow time in case of schedule changes. The Yellow Line stops at Civic Center UN Plaza then walk up to the Asian Art Museum and meet in the lobby.

Lucy Hart, Stan Anderson and Else Welsh have planned an outing for a no host lunch at Longport Fish Company in Concord on Tuesday June 27 at 12 noon. 2015 Diamond Blvd, suite 100 (in The Veranda) Concord, CA 94520. 925-483-2053. Close to the freeway and easy to get to.

Please RSVP to: Stan Anderson at stanangpuldw@hotmail.com or 925-889-9229.

Sonja Vukasin has invited us again to a pot luck lunch in her beautiful backyard in Alamo. So mark your calendars for Tuesday, July 25th at noon and RSVP to her at 925-820-3232.

Last year at Sonja's.

Sonja, Marilyn K., Else, Ingrid, Laurie and Lucy

Marilyn Gregga, Suzy Proescher, Hostess Nancy Kallus, Louise Diracles, Liz Turlington, Laurie Barton, Sonja Vukasin and Lucy Hart

Suzy Proescher was in town. Seven of us met at the Creekside Restaurant in Rossmoor, Walnut Creek, on Monday, May 22, 2023 at noon to see her. Thank you to Nancy Kallus for organizing the event!

Marilyn Kaplan sent the attached movie of our 3/5/23 High Tea Party.

Also attached is the roster.
